Something for Easter weekend

The lights come up on the interior of Shady Creek, a simple, rustic country church in rural North Carolina. It's the kind of church we imagine and hope may still exist somewhere. The fresh out-of-seminary Reverend William Higgins comes to his first assignment with high expectations, only to find a troupe of seasoned church "bosses" who are determined to direct the new "Rev" in the "proper and accepted" way. Some long-gone "sinners" from Shady Creek, who couldn't fit the mold, had cut away from the church and went on their own path. With the new reverend, they find that the way back home might not be as difficult as they thought!

Bad Seed (Thriller)

By Maxwell Anderson, from William March's novel.

Director: Cathy Collins

Auditions: May 17 & 18

Play-dates: July 2, 3; 8, 9, 10, 11 (Mat); 15, 16, 17

Something for July 4th weekend!

The scene is a small Southern town where Colonel and Christine Penmark live with their daughter, Rhoda, the evil queen of the story. On the surface she is sweet, charming, full of old-fashioned graces, loved by her parents, admired by all her elders. But Rhoda's mother has an uneasy feeling about her. When one of Rhoda's schoolmates is mysteriously drowned at a picnic, Mrs. Penmark is alarmed. Coincidentally, the boy who drowned was the student who won the penmanship medal that Rhoda felt she deserved.

One of Broadway's outstanding hits: "It is solely and honestly meant to entertain...As a purely purposeful diversion, it ranks with 'Dracula' and sometimes sets your spine to as much tingling. Chilling!" NY Telegram.

Second Samuel (Comedy/Drama)

By Pamela Parker, an Atlanta playwright

Director: Jerry Reppert

Auditions: July 19 & 20.

Play-dates: September 3, 4; 9, 10, 11, 12 (Mat); 16, 17, 18

Something to do Labor Day weekend!

You will enjoy this delightful and emotionally touching play about life and friendships set in the rural Georgia town of Second Samuel. The town has its share of "characters" along with its share of "secrets". This play was so loved when we did it about ten years ago that WRLT wants to bring it back for your enjoyment. If you remember any of the "secrets"...please keep them, so those new to the play can have as much fun as you did the first time you saw it.

Dracula (Drama)

By Hamilton Deane and John L. Balderston,

From Bram Stoker's novel.

Director: Fred Hardin

Auditions: September 20 & 21.

Play-dates: October 29, 30, 31 (Mat); November 5, 6, 7; 11, 12, 13

Special Halloween weekend opening!

An enormously successful revival of this classic opened on Broadway in 1977, fifty years after the original production. This is one of the great mystery thrillers and is generally considered among the best of its kind. Lucy Seward, whose father is the doctor in charge of an English sanatorium, has been attacked by some mysterious illness. Dr. Van Helsing, a specialist, believes that the girl is the victim of a vampire, a sort of ghost that goes about at night sucking blood from its victims. The vampire is found to be a certain Count Dracula, whose ghost is at last laid to rest in a striking and novel manner. The play is intended for all who love thrills in the theater.

Butterflies Are Free (Comedy)

By Leonard Gershe

Director: Katie Manning

Auditions: January 3 & 4.

Play-dates: February 11, 12; 17, 18, 19, 20 (Mat); 24, 25, 26.

Young Don Baker, hero of his mother's children's book series, "Donny Dark," has been blind since birth. His overprotective mother follows his every move. Don finally decides to take his own apartment in Manhattan and pursue his songwriting ambitions. When his mother meets his kooky neighbor, sexy actress Jill, Mrs. Baker's controlling instincts go into overdrive with hilariously touching results.

"A lovely play. It is funny when it means to be, sentimental when it is so inclined, and heartwarming."-New York Daily News "A charming play...humorous, winning and quietly moving."-New York Post
